

Bloomington City Minutes
March 12, 2012
7:00 PM
City Offices

Invocation – Offered by Ted McGhee

Attendance: Joe Dunford, Roy Bunderson, Jay Ward, Ted McGhee, Dave Madsen and Stacy Higley

Visitors: Glen Pond, Bill Napier, Jim Gyier, Dan, Wayne Davidson, Shawn Turner.

Review of Minutes: Motion to accept the February 12, 2012 Minutes as amended by, Roy Bunderson seconded by Ted McGhee, Vote unanimous.

Follow up Business – Stonegate Agricom update – Environmental impact study, hydrology – ground water, identify ground water issues that are associated with the application process. Topo disk available, with get a copy to the City. Drilling program will continue until September this year. Next year two months. Water table studies this year. Aquifer studies will begin. Samples taken to document water quality, water flow measurements in the creek. Feasibility Study submits for permit is the next step 2-7 years. Scoping meeting in Randolph, UT on the Sage Grouse 25th. Water monitoring by Brown Caldwell and own crew.

Water- Shawn needs two more batteries, will pick up tomorrow. Clerk asked to look into finding a courier to Idaho Falls for monthly water samples.

Sewer – After discussion it was decided to ask Wayne Lloyd and Shawn Turner to pursue certification of waste water through IBOL. Sewer preventative maintenance needs to be monitored.

Roads – There are a few places where patching is needed. Everything else is good.

City Facilities – Nothing

P & Z – Tim Passey, Chairman of the P & Z has submitted names for two vacancies on the committee. After review of the names, it was determined that Council Member Madsen and the Mayor would call two new members. Names will be ratified at the next City meeting, by the Council.

Legal - Nothing

Payment of Bills: Motion to pay the bills as submitted, by Roy Bunderson, seconded by Ted McGhee, vote unanimous.

Development Permits - None

Delinquent Accounts – Aging sheet was reviewed, Jared Schetselaar, as well as Victor Reese's' water are to be turned off. Council Member Ward would like to talk to Victor before his water is turned off, he will coordinate shut offs with Shawn Turner.

Motion to adjourn meeting made by Dave Madsen, seconded by Jay Ward, vote unanimous. Next meeting will be on Wednesday, March 14th, 2012 at 7:00 pm. Dismissed at 9:05 pm.

City Clerk

Mayor